

SYSTEMS UPGRADE

As the Time Lord travels, they may occasionally find enough down time, and interest, to customize and improve their TARDIS. They may still be flying around in a museum piece, but after a bit of work it will be a far more functional one...

Effect

Each time this Trait is taken, the TARDIS may take a +1 upgrade in either Coordination, Ingenuity or Strength and reduces its Story Point total by 1. It may be taken once for each of the Attributes listed above.
